Technical Drawing

Avery Karlin

Spring 2016

Contents

Teacher: Griffith

1   Types of Lines

1. Object lines are dark, thick lines, used to show the visible edges of the object in the drawing
   (a) Object lines must be the darkest within the drawing
   (b) Hidden lines, on the other hand, are dashed lines to show edges of the object that would not noramally be visible, drawn darkly